Definitions:

In these bylaws:

- a) "Association" means the Brentwood Elementary Fundraising Association
- b) "ECS Parents" means parents or guardians of children enrolled in an early childhood services program at Brentwood Elementary School
- c) "Parents" means parents or guardians and ECS Parents of students attending Brentwood Elementary School
- d) "Regulation" means the Associations' Regulation under the Societies Act
- e) "School" means Brentwood Elementary School
- f) "School Community" means persons including parents, ECS Parents, and members of the school staff who have, in the opinion of the majority of the members of the Association, an interest in the school
- g) "Consensus" means a process whereby two or more people cooperatively attempt to arrive at a decision they can support, even though it may not be their first choice
- h) "Member" means consenting member

ARTICLE 1 - Name:

The name of the association shall be "Brentwood Elementary Fundraising Association" (BEFA). Although a separate entity, it will work closely with the Brentwood Elementary School Council (BESC).

ARTICLE 2 - Membership:

1. Membership in the Association shall be open to any member of the Brentwood Elementary School Council and/or parents/guardians (including Kindergarten/ECS Parents) of students attending Brentwood Elementary School by completing a membership form. There will be no membership fee.
 - a) Privacy: The Association shall not collect, use, share, or store personal information for purposes other than those of Association business, and shall destroy it appropriately once it is no longer needed.
2. Parents/guardians who move into the school during the school year will automatically become members of the Association by completing a membership form.
3. Parents/guardians who no longer have students in attendance at Brentwood Elementary School (due to moves to another school or to students graduating to Junior High School) lose their member status.
4. No Member (parent/guardian) can be excluded from belonging to the association and thus cannot be expelled from belonging to the Association (except for circumstances as outlined in Article 4.7 and 4.8, below) as long as they have a child registered at Brentwood Elementary School.

5. A Member or an Executive Member may withdraw by notice in writing to the President of the BEFA and if the withdrawing member is the President, by notice in writing to the Vice-President.
6. Any member having a personal pecuniary or conflict of interest in any matter being discussed by the Association is required to declare such and absent himself/herself from any discussion or vote on such matter.

ARTICLE 3 - Associate Membership:

The Principal, Staff Members, and Community members of Brentwood Elementary School will be considered to have an Associate Membership and shall serve as resource people and in an advisory capacity to the Association. As Associate Members, the Principal and all other Staff Members will not have voting rights at any meeting of the Association. Neither the Principal nor any Staff Member shall have signing authority for the Association. The Principal, by virtue of the School Act, shall have the power of veto relating to actions directly affecting the school building, staff or students, but not relating to financial expenditures, revenues or investments of the Association.

ARTICLE 4 - Executive Committee:

1. The Executive Committee or Board of Directors shall mean the Executive Committee of the society. They have the power to manage the affairs of the Association and will follow the representative model for voting.
2. The BEFA shall include the following Executive members:
 - a) President
 - b) Vice President
 - c) Secretary
 - d) Treasurer
 - e) Directors (up to 3)
3. All executive positions of the Association will be voluntary positions. As a result, there is no financial payment for being a member of the executive.
4. The executive will be elected for a one-year term at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) by the general membership.
5. The terms of office shall run from the AGM of one school year to the AGM of the following school year.
6. If a vacancy arises on the Executive before completion of the term, the remaining members of the Executive have the power to appoint a member of the Association to that position until the next AGM is called. This allows for the continuation of business for the Association.
7. Upon simple majority vote (50% plus one) of those members present at a special meeting duly called, a Member may be removed from office for any cause the Executive Members may deem reasonable.

8. If one of the Executive Members falls under investigation by police for criminal activity or wrongdoing, then he/she will be suspended from the position without privileges until the investigation is completed. If criminal charges are laid, then that Member may be expelled from being an Executive Member of the Association. A special meeting of the BEFA may be called to help provide input and guidance to the above process.

ARTICLE 5 - Duties of the Executive Committee:

A. President

1. The President shall be an ex-officio member with voting privileges of all committees unless otherwise delegated to other Members of the membership.
2. He/she, when present, will preside at all meetings of the Association.
3. In his/her absence, the Vice President shall preside at any such meetings. In the absence of both, a member having signing authority may be called upon to preside over the meeting.
4. Further to this, the President shall:
 - a) have general supervision of all activities of the Association
 - b) be the official spokesperson of the Association
 - c) decide all matters relating to rules of order at the meetings

 - e) have signing authority of any cheques together with the Vice President and/or Treasurer and/or Secretary.

B. Vice President

1. The Vice President shall:
 - a) aid the President and undertake tasks assigned by the President
 - b) in the absence of the President, supervise the affairs and preside at any meetings of the Association
 - c) in the event of resignation, incapacity, or leave of absence of the President, fulfill the President's responsibilities
 - d) have signing authority of any cheques together with the President and/or the Treasurer and/or Secretary.

C. Secretary

1. The Secretary shall:

- a) attend all meetings of the Association and those of the Executive and keep accurate minutes of the meetings and the proceedings of the same.
- b) be responsible for ensuring the original minutes are stored in the school office with each page of the minutes initialed by two Executive Members
- c) have charge of all the correspondence and official records of the Association and be under the direction of the President.
- d) maintain an annual dated record of all the Members of BEFA, their addresses, email addresses, and phone numbers.
- e) provide notices of Association meetings for either regular, general, and/or special meetings.
- f) have signing authority of any cheques together with the President and/or the Vice President and/or Treasurer
- g) be responsible to provide approved minutes to the School Webmaster for posting in a timely manner.

D. Treasurer

1. The Treasurer shall:

- a) receive all monies paid to the Association and be responsible for the deposit of same in whatever Bank, Trust Company, Credit Union, or Treasury Branch the Association may order.
- b) properly account for the funds of the Association and keep such books as may be directed.
- c) present a full detailed account of receipts and disbursements to the Association whenever requested by the Association and properly prepare the financial statements for annual reporting.
- d) provide the Secretary with a copy of any prepared financial reports and/or audited report for the records of the Association.
- e) have signing authority of any cheques together with the Secretary, and/or President and/or Vice President.

E. Directors

1. The Directors shall:

- a) attend all meetings and assist other members in discussions, research, and communication of items specific to the Association.

ARTICLE 6 - Insurance:

For the purpose of carrying out its objectives, the Association will annually review and carry liability insurance as deemed necessary by the Board, or if required by the policies of the school.

ARTICLE 7 - Committees:

1. Committees will be determined by the Executive and will make decisions or recommendations according to the mandate the Executive gives them as deemed necessary from school year to school year.
 - a) Committee members shall consist of volunteers from the Brentwood Elementary School Community.
 - b) Standing Committees will operate on an ongoing basis with specified lengths of terms for members.
 - c) Ad Hoc Committees will be formed as necessary and will work within a specified time period.

ARTICLE 8 - Auditing:

1. The books, accounts, and records of the Treasurer:
 - a) shall be audited at least once a year by a duly qualified accountant or by two members of the BEFA. The fiscal year end of the Association in each year shall be June 30 for reporting purposes under Section 26(2) of the Societies Act.
 - b) may be inspected by any member of the Association at the AGM or at any time upon giving reasonable notice and arranging a time satisfactory to the office or Officers having charge of same. Each Member of the Association shall, at all times, have access to such books and records upon appointment.

ARTICLE 9 - Borrowing Powers:

For the purpose of carrying out its objectives, the Association may borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as it thinks fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures, but this power shall be exercised only under the authority of the Executive, and in no case shall debentures be issued without the sanction of a Special Resolution of the Association.

ARTICLE 10 - Meetings:

Irregularities or errors done in good faith do not invalidate acts done by any meeting of the Association or Board. No action taken at a meeting is invalid due to accidental omission to give notice to any Member, and Member not receiving any notice, or any error in any notice that does not affect the meeting.
